To Whom it May Concern

Dear Sirs

We are a firm of Chartered Accountants based in the north of England who have only used marketing consultants modestly over the years. However, we were recommended to Chartered Developments and, tentatively at first, had a monthly contract with them in order to see how successful their approach would be in generating appointments and helping us turn those appointments into clients.

We have been thrilled with the results and have been using their services for over 18 months. Given the success, we have asked Chartered Developments to assist in another section of our business.

The staff are very professional, competent and approachable and are clearly experts in their field. We would have no hesitation whatsoever in strongly recommending Chartered Developments to any business who does not compete with us!

Yours faithfully
